

Research Background Information Sheet

In order to begin the research, students must educate themselves about the general topic area. Complete each area below to show that you are ready to begin the research process.

MAKE SURE TO GIVE AS MUCH DETAIL AS POSSIBLE.

•What is your general research area / topic.

•What are some historical facts related to the general topic?

•What are some general facts about the general topic?

•What are some statistics related to the general topic?

•What are some laws related to the general topic?

•What are some current events related to the topic?

•If you had to pick a specific subtopic to focus on today, what would it be (please be specific)?

•If you had to write a thesis statement for your research position today, what would it be (sentence form)?
